HOME NEWS NOTES.

Local forecast for Pensacola and vicinity:
Cloudy and warmer to-night; Tuesday fair; light to fresh southerly winds. Maximum temperature yesterday, 74 degrees; minimum in last 24 hours 59.

FALSE ALARM.—The fire department was called to Palatka wharf at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon, but the call proved to be a false alarm.

KING TO HANG.—Governor Bloxham has signed the death warrant and fixed Friday, March 9, as the date for the execution of Wayman King, who murdered Victoria Watkins here September 16 last.

THE BUSINESS INDEX.—Our solicitor is meeting with good success in the canvass for THE NEWS' "Business Index," which will be published about the 15th. Those not already seen will be called upon as soon as possible.

HOLINESS BAND.—About 65 persons, men, women and children, who style themselves Christ's Sanctified Holy People, arrived here Saturday and will reside here some time distributing tracts and teaching their peculiar religious doctrines.

ATTENTION MERCHANTS.—Every merchant who is interested in Pensacola is invited to an up-to-date Mardi Gras celebration to be held at the Grand Hotel to-morrow night to make necessary arrangements for a trades display.

JACK AND THE BEANSTALK.—This popular extravaganza company arrived yesterday afternoon. It is an unusually large company, filling two cars, and they have an immense lot of special scenery. They will play to-night at the opera house to standing room only.

CHICKEN THIEVES.—Thieves raided the chicken coops of Mr. Gregory Quinn and Mrs. Philip Caro last night. They carried off a lot of chickens from Mr. Quinn's and killed thirteen of Mrs. Caro's, but were evidently frightened off before they could bag them.

PLENTY OF SNAPPERS.—Warren & Co.'s snappers, Silas Stearns, Wm. H. Warren, Isabelle and Clarence Barkley, are in port with a catch aggregating 12,000. The snappers, Lottie S. Haskins, F. W. Carter, A. J. Chapman, O. Gray, W. L. Carter and Priscilla, of E. E. Saunders & Co.'s fleet, have arrived with an aggregate catch of 20,000 snappers.

FELL COVERBARI.—A party of Northern visitors went out Saturday on Capt. Dixon Reilly's yacht Wallace for a sail. In attempting to walk along the edge of the boat Mrs. B. H. Hays, of Pittsburg, lost her balance and fell overboard. She exhibited rare presence of mind and calmly floated on her back until the men with the small boat picked her up.

LABOR SETTLEMENTS.—District Master Workman Arthur McConnell of the Knights of Labor will go to Freeport Feb. 8 to hold a conference with J. J. Metcalf, H. L. Berry and Jernigan & Son to discuss and arbitrate the differences between the mill's and the men in that vicinity. On Feb. 20 he will go to Brewton to hold a conference with the Cedar Creek Mill Co. to finish the arbitration with them.

LEGAL SALES.—Only one sheriff's sale of real estate was made to-day, in the case of B. C. Kyle & Co. versus M. T. Johnson. The property levied on—part of block 82, B. 100, numbering in section 30, township 25, range 30 west—was sold to plaintiff in execution for $85. A lot of pistols and guns, captured from sundry criminals, was also sold by the sheriff. J. E. Sierra, auctioneer, conducted the sales.

POLICE COURT.—Mayor Hilliard had a large docket this morning, numbering twenty-nine cases, three of which were continued, the defendants in seven cases were discharged, one was turned over to the criminal court and fines amounting to $127.50 were assessed against the others. Will Daniels was the star performer and was assessed $50 for carrying concealed weapons.

CRIMINAL COURT.—The following jurors summoned for this week were excused: Alex. McKinnon, G. F. Mills, C. H. Dishman, E. N. Bowman and W. A. Bowman. A special venire was ordered, and the following were summoned: W. H. H. McDavid, W. H. Kyle, C. R. McGee, G. Soderlund and S. Sanchez. The case of John Down and Bill Smith, charged with breaking and entering, and attempting to break and enter, was taken up, with Hon. Jno. B. Jones representing the defendants.

UNDER NEW MANAGEMENT.—Hotel Escambia has been leased for a term of years by J. B. Brittain, late of St. Albert hotel, Charleston, W. Va. Mr. Brittain is a hotel man of long years of experience and has made a success of every hotel he ever managed. He will make some changes at the hotel and is determined that it shall become one of the most popular tourist hotels in Florida. Mr. Brittain will assist her husband in the management of the house and will personally look after the comfort of the lady boarders.
